

WE ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THE 2014 APPLAUSE AWARDS PLATINUM WINNERS

At our third annual Applause Awards evening we announced our platinum winners for 2014

This year's six platinum finalists were: Dale Rideout from Alto Hastings, Bill Brewster from VIP Packaging in Queensland, David McNickle (two Platinum ideas) and Kim Clayton both from Alto Hamilton, Richie Eustaquio from VIP Packaging in Moorabbin and Michelle Frank from Signum Broadmeadows.

The 2014 Applause Platinum winner was Richie Eustaquio for the PACTup disposable tray initiative. Richie received $5000 and will receive a further $5000 on development of a prototype and $5000 once the product is launched.

First runner up was a joint submission by David McNickle and Kim Clayton for their significant work in driving Customer Experience Days. David and Kim both received $2500 each and will receive $2500 each once the idea is implemented and a program is built for use at other sites.

Second runner up was Dale Rideout for his cost effective solution for a temperature control problem at Alto Hastings. Dale was awarded $2000 will receive a further $3000 once the solution is implemented at three other sites.

Finalists Michelle Frank, Bill Brewster and David McNickle (for his second nomination) each received $1000 for their submissions.

Customer Lovin'

Sustainability + Respect

Driving Brilliance

Transformational Change

Speed + Purpose